

Graf von Faber-Castell Elemento

The Elemento fountain pen limited edition honors Faber-Castell's 250th anniversary. It is made out of olive, one of the finest woods in the world, in an Art Deco style. Faber-Castell's technical innovation has made it possible for them to enhance the natural markings of the olive wood in a way that was previously unknown. A true beauty, this pen comes in a lacquered wood presentation case. The fountain pen comes with an 18k Gold nib.

Graf von Faber-Castell Perfect Pencil

This beautiful pen is equipped with an extender that protects the point from breaking with a robust clip that stows the pencil away neatly with no risk of damage. Additionally, a sharpener is presented at the end of the cap, accompanying the eraser on the end of the pencil. Additional refills can be bought to replace the lead.

Faber-Castell Ambition Pearwood Pen

Faber-Castell brings another mix of classic color and perfect balance to their new product: the Ambition. The long body is incredibly comfortable with its soft, finished barrel and polished chrome-plated ends. The fountain pen has a snap on cap with a steel nib and uses only cartridges. These are hard-working, daily use pens.
