Singing Bowl Desk Mate

Tibetan singing bowls are classical instruments used for meditation, relaxation, healthcare, and personal well-being. The bowls make the K note when rubbed with a singing bowl striker. The rims of the bowls vibrate to produce calm, humming sounds. Each bowl comes with its own striker. These items are the perfect desk mate to dress up your workspace and start your day off peacefully.

Opportunity and Charging Bull Desk Items

Since the dawn of time, the bull has been a symbol of power and strength. These two distinct bulls were created with a special purpose in mind. One is the Opportunity Bull that symbolizes waiting for an opportunity to get your life moving in a positive direction. The other is the Charging Bull that symbolizes charging ahead with your full strength to use that opportunity to its fullest potential. These bulls are handcrafted and made with compressed resin to highlight the bulls' most minute details. They are both great motivational companions to have at your desk or displayed as show pieces.
