

The diamond, a rare and brilliant crystal formed by nature, where time, extreme pressure and heat combine to create the hardest substance on earth. Diamonds seem to perform magic with the light giving them a sparkle unmatched by other gems and making them the delight of royalty around the globe. Laban has paired the wondrous diamond with the lustrous silver sheen of Rhodium to create their newest triumph:

"The Laban Diamond Pen"

With special setting of the diamonds combining simplicity and elegance of our turned pattern:

*The "Totality" has 3736 pieces diamonds on pen's body.
The "Helix" has 720 pieces diamonds on pen's body.*

Both pens are "Limited Edition".
